A Message from our Chancellor

Congratulations, Graduates!

What a privilege it is to share this joyous occasion with you. You've worked diligently to arrive at this moment and we at Queen's are enormously proud of you.

Today, we celebrate and honour your great achievement in an exultant ceremony, starting with the bagpipes! I invite you to reflect on the people–family, friends, teachers, staff, librarians–everyone who's supported you on your academic journey. Cherish the relationships you've formed at Queen's, and keep that sense of belonging stoked. As a Queen's graduate myself, I can tell you that sense of community you found here, is a lifelong gift.

The world is in a state of churn and rupture. It calls upon you to exercise the abilities you cultivated over your time at Queen's: to think critically, to act with intention with a good mind as our Elder Allen Doxtator says, to build new pathways, and to care with compassion and an open heart. The resilience, confidence, and perseverance you've already demonstrated will stand you in good stead.

Though it is an ending, graduation is also a beginning. On behalf of our university, I offer you my heartiest congratulations and best wishes as you embrace the future.

Indigenous Gifting Ceremony

Every year, Four Directions Indigenous Student Centre (FDISC), on behalf of the University, the Indigenous Council of Queen's University (ICQU) and the Vice-Provost and Dean of Student Affairs, presents graduating Indigenous students with special gifts during their convocation ceremonies in honour of their accomplishments as Indigenous graduates of Queen's University.

Indigenous graduates are invited back to FDISC to put their handprint on the canvas wall hangings, along with their name, program, year of graduation and community, leaving their mark on Queen's in perpetuity.

"In my community we have oheroton, a rite of passage ceremony. I was never able to participate. Receiving this gift was like my own rite of passage, reaffirming that we will succeed as indigenous people within these institutions."
– J. Sunday, Akwesasne (BSc Kinesiology 2019)
