

Motion from the Senate Educational Equity Committee

Whereas, Faculty, staff and student representatives to the Senate Education Equity Committee concluded at its February 5th meeting that values of equity and the climate of diversity at Queen's would greatly be enhanced by high profile recognition of Robert Sutherland over and above the current measures commemorating his achievements and generosity to Queen's, and

Whereas, Principal Williams is charged with making a recommendation to the Board of Trustees regarding a current proposal for the re-naming of the Policy Studies Building,

Be it resolved that Senate recognizes Robert Sutherland's historic status and generous contribution to Queen's University and recommends to the Principal that the Policy Studies Building be re-named as Robert Sutherland Hall.