CULTURAL STUDIES SPEAKER SERIES

Conversation with Ozlem Atar

Ozlem Atar is a doctoral candidate in Cultural Studies. She holds an MA in English Language Teaching and a PhD in Communication Sciences.

Ozlem's doctoral research at Queen's Cultural Studies engages narratives of migration with a focus on irregular transborder movement across the Americas. Ozlem explores the junction between migrant justice advocacy and literature, so the ethics, aesthetics, and politics of migration narratives comprise much of her reading, writing, and teaching.
