Applications are invited for the position of Head of the Department of Family Medicine at Queen’s University and its affiliated teaching hospitals, Kingston General Hospital, Hotel Dieu Hospital and Providence Care. We are searching for an outstanding academic physician with proven administrative experience and leadership and clinical skills who, as Head, will develop and manage teams that will foster continuing excellence in teaching, patient care and research within the Department and the region. The qualified applicant must provide evidence of an ability to lead and work in an interdisciplinary, collaborative environment, be a systems thinker, as well as have a demonstrated record of scholarly achievement. Applicants will hold Canadian Certification in Family Medicine (CCFP) or equivalent and be eligible for licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario.

The Queen's Department of Family Medicine is acknowledged for excellence in education, primary care and research. We offer the largest residency program within the Queen's School of Medicine - hosting residents at four sites: Kingston-1000 Islands, Belleville-Quinte, Peterborough-Kawartha and Bowmanville-Oshawa-Lakeridge - as well as a robust undergraduate program. As a team of interdisciplinary health professionals, we are valued as partners in family medicine and primary health care within Queen's, in our communities, and internationally. Please visit https://familymedicine.queensu.ca

Queen’s University is located in historic Kingston, on the shores of Lake Ontario, with easy access to Montreal, Toronto & Ottawa. This university city of approximately 150,000 offers a unique mix of year-round recreational, cultural and academic opportunities. Queen's University is recognized nationally and internationally for the quality of its undergraduate and graduate programs, which attract outstanding students. It has a community spirit and amenities unmatched by any other Canadian university.

Applications and nominations, the former to be accompanied by a letter summarizing leadership and administrative experience, a curriculum vitae and the names and full contact information of three referees, are to be directed to: Drs. Richard Reznick and John Leverette, Search Committee Co-Chairs, c/o Ms. Andrea Sealy, Faculty of Health Sciences, Macklem House, Queen’s University, 18 Barrie Street, Kingston, Ontario, Canada, K7L 3N6 or by e-mail to andrea.sealy@queensu.ca. Review of applications and nominations will commence in December and will continue until the position is filled. Support to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs, will be provided in the recruitment processes. If you require accommodation during the interview process, please contact Ms. Sealy.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen’s is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

To comply with federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information as to how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship; however, all applications must include one of the following statements: “I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada”; OR, “I am not a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada”. Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.