

The Faculty Recruitment and Support Program helps by answering questions candidates and new appointees have about:

Housing | schools
moving | cost of living
spousal employment
credit and banking
immigration | elder
care | health services
faith groups | cultural communities....and much more

Services are confidential.

RESOURCES OFFERED:

Advertise upcoming positions on the Faculty Recruitment and Support web site by ensuring your department's web site is linked or send an electronic copy of your ad. The site gets 95,000+ hits/yr.

"Welcome Kits" with information on Queen's and Kingston are available for distribution to the candidates before coming to campus or on arrival. Call to obtain up-to-date kits for your candidates.

Consultation with candidates

A half hour meeting with the Faculty Recruitment Co-ordinator gives your candidate time to ask questions concerning themselves and their families and offers reassurance for a potential relocation. Call to set up an appointment for your candidate or new faculty member during a campus visit, or set up an email or skype appointment.

Web resources for prospective and new faculty www.queensu.ca/facultyrecruitment offers up-to-date information on all facets of relocation to Queen's and Kingston

New Faculty Orientation Day

The Faculty Recruitment and Support Program co-ordinates a New Faculty Orientation Day in the third week of August. New faculty members will be invited to attend. For more information, please contact the FRSP office.