

TEACHING FELLOW POSITIONS IN THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

Posting Date: February 1, 2012

Closing Date for applications: February 15, 2012.

The Department of History invites applications for teaching fellowship positions for Spring/Summer 2012 and Fall/Winter 2012-2013. The process of appointing qualified teaching fellows to these positions is outlined in the Collective Agreement between PSAC 901 and Queen's University.

The department will review applications and appoint teaching fellows in reference to candidates' teaching and academic experience as it applies to the course subject field and in reference to the candidates' priority for a Teaching Fellowship as specified by the Collective Agreement. All positions are subject to availability of funding and number of enrollments in the course. All doctoral students in Year 3 and beyond of their PhD programme, who seek internal financial support of any kind in 2012-2013, are expected to apply for these positions. If you are at all unsure of your program or funding status in 2012-2013, contact the Chair of Graduate Studies, Prof. Jeff McNairn. Graduate students in Preference Group A as defined by the Collective Agreement will have priority for teaching fellow positions. Applicants in other preference pools will be considered if positions are still available.

Applicants should submit an application file consisting of an up-to-date curriculum vita, a short note or email from at least one referee (normally the supervisor), a copy of transcript(s) -- unofficial versions from SOLUS and similar systems will suffice-, and a one page statement that identifies in order of priority the fellowship(s) for which you are applying and that describes briefly your teaching experience, teaching interests, approach to teaching, and, if applying for one of the on-line or correspondence courses (252*S, 260S, 280S), relevant experience in either format.

A very limited number of "Topics in History" proposals may be considered: please include a draft syllabus if you wish to propose such a course in addition to the other courses for which you are applying.

For more information on specific courses, consult the Arts and Science calendar:

Please submit the application file to Dr. James Carson, Chair, Department of History, Queen's University, Kingston ON K7L 3N6 or by email to jc35@queensu.ca by Thursday, February 15.
