

CONTENTS

vii Preface

xi Contributors

I Introduction

3 1. Introduction and Overview
Thomas J. Courchene and John R. Allan

II The Politics and Economics of Fiscal Federalism: Setting the Stage

27 2. Fiscal Federalism and the Burden of History
Garth Stevenson

53 3. Strengthening Canada's Territories and Putting Equalization
Back on Track: The Report of the Expert Panel on Equalization and Territorial Formula Financing
Al O'Brien

65 4. Reconciling the Irreconcilable: Addressing Canada's Fiscal Imbalance

III Equalization: Policy Perspectives

73 5. Equalization: Its Problems and the 2007 Federal Budget
Janice MacKinnon

89 6. Natural Resource Revenues and Fiscal Federalism:
An Alberta Perspective
Paul Boothe

IV Equalization: Analytical Perspectives

107 7. Natural Resource Shocks and the Federal System:
Boon and Curse?
Robin Boadway

- 131 8. Fiscal Balance and Revenue-Sharing
Jean-François Tremblay
- 145 9. Equalization Reform in Canada: Principles and Compromises
Joe Ruggeri

V Equalization: The Offshore Accords

- 175 10. Equalization 2007: Natural Resources, the Cap, and the Offset Payment Agreements
James P. Feehan
- 201 11. Changes to Canada's Major Federal-Provincial Transfer Programs: Implications for the Maritime Provinces
Paul A.R. Hobson and L. Wade Locke

VI Cities, Local Government, and Federalism

- 227 12. Rethinking Fiscal Federalism in Canada: A Local Government Perspective
Anwar Shah
- 249 13. Major Cities as a National Priority
Anne Golden
- 263 14. Global Futures for Canada's Global Cities
Thomas J. Courchene

VII Federalism and the Spending Power

- 295 15. Fiscal Federalism and the Future of Canada: Can Section 94 of the Constitution Act, 1867 be an Alternative to the Spending Power?
Marc-Antoine Adam
- 323 16. Employment Insurance and Parental Benefits
Gordon DiGiacomo
- 347 17. Networked Federalism
Janice Gross Stein