Animal Advocacy & Writing

I am a founding member of Queen's Animal Defence, which is "committed to social justice for all animals, starting with those at Queen's – whether confined in labs, consumed in cafeterias, or sharing campus grounds, structures and habitats." QAD, active since 2013, has focused primarily on the situation of animals used in research and education at Queen's, and on the need to incorporate animal ethics and food 'footprints' into campus sustainability policies.

I am a collaborator on two animal sanctuary projects in Kingston. One is a private sanctuary for farmed animals, established in 2014. The second project, "Save the Herd", is an initiative to establish a prison farm sanctuary (2016).

I am a regular contributor to Versus, a general interest magazine of vegan life published in Montréal.

- "La menace vegane" Versus No. 2 (fall 2015), pp. 14-15.
- "Etre végane dans un monde non végane" Versus No. 3 (Spring 2016)
- "Comment vivre avec les blaireaux?" Versus No. 4 (Fall 2017)

"Queen's Animal Defence: A profile in advocacy", (article) appeared in Animal Liberation Currents on November 21, 2016.

"Zoos & Circuses: The wrong kind of education about animals" (opinion) appeared in The Globe & Mail on May 6, 2016 [Co-authored with Will Kymlicka].

"Stirring the Pot" (a short play in 6 scenes about 'who shall eat, and who shall be meat?') was published in PhaenEx: journal of existential and phenomenological theory and culture, Vol. 8/2 (2013), pp. 1-27.

- This play was awarded first prize in the Ottawa Little Theatre's national one-act playwriting competition in 2005.

“The Moral Ark”, (article) published in Queen’s Quarterly, Vol. 114/2 (2007) 187-205. (Co-authored with Will Kymlicka)

Foods That Don’t Bite Back, (vegan recipes and philosophy book) published by Whitecap Books/Arsenal Pulp Press (Vancouver 2003).
