

ELORIN welcomed into provincial innovation network

2011-02-14

Ontario Minister of Research and Innovation Glen Murray, ELORIN executive director Shelagh McDonald and MPP John Gerretsen.

MPP Glen Murray, Ontario's minister of research and innovation, visited Innovation Park Feb. 10 to announce that Eastern Lake Ontario Regional Innovation Network (ELORIN) is now part of the Ontario Network of Excellence (ONE). ONE links together 14 regional innovation centres across Ontario to promote the development of innovative ideas.

ELORIN, located at Innovation Park, is a group of regional champions actively supporting bio-business development. ELORIN executive director Shelagh McDonald is pictured here with Mr. Murray and Kingston and the Islands MPP John Gerretsen.
