

In Memory of David L. J. Sealy The David L.J. Sealy Award

David was a brilliant scholar, an engaging teacher and an inspiring mentor. His passion and commitment to social justice guided and shaped his scholarly pursuits and left a mark on those who knew him. David's intellectual depth and breadth is evident in his wide-ranging interests, which spanned post-Marxist, post-colonial and post-structuralist theory; urban, legal and criminological studies; popular culture; gender studies; race and psychoanalysis; and black diasporic, black Atlantic and black transnational studies. His intellectual legacy and scholarly generosity will continue to provide inspiration and guidance to his family, friends, students and colleagues.

Your gift will enrich David's scholarly commitments and contributions by supporting a student working in the fields of black studies and social justice.

08292

YES, I'll make a donation to York University in memory of Professor David L.J. Sealy

I'll give a gift of $ _____

My cheque made payable to York University Foundation is enclosed.

Please charge my credit card: VISA MasterCard American Express

Cardholder's Name _____

Card No. _____ Expiry ____/____ Signature _____

I prefer to use payroll deduction. My employee number is _____ (York employees only)

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ Province _____ Postal Code _____

Tele _____ (Home)

_____ (Mobile)

_____ (Work)

Email _____

Message on card to family:

Your Privacy:

York University Foundation respects the privacy of our donors. Personal information will be used to provide tax receipts, to contact you regarding your gift, and to keep you informed of York events and activities. For further information contact York University Foundation's Chief Privacy Officer at 416-650-8210.

I do not want to have my name published for the purpose of recognition.