

SUMMER STAFF POSITIONS AVAILABLE

Future Quest Summer Experience - July 29 - August 19, 2012

Program:

Future Quest is an innovative program that provides up to 30 youth age 14-17 from across Canada with opportunities to explore community, religion, theology and leadership by challenging body, mind and spirit.

We are currently seeking up to FOUR staff to work from July 29 - August 19, 2012 in our tenth annual Summer Experience. Applications must be submitted by March 1st, 2012.

Role:

Staff members are expected to demonstrate strong leadership skills as well as team work. Staff actively involve youth in aspects of community living, theological reflection and program leadership.

Successful applicants will be required to effectively and creatively weave “the exploration of community, theology and leadership challenging body, mind and spirit” into daily activities such as classroom seminars, spiritual practices, recreational activities, community service, and a canoe/camping trip.

Requirements:

- To work co-operatively as a team for long hours in an intense community
- To provide an affirming, challenging, and enriching environment for youth
- To ensure the safety of participants while engaged on and off-campus
- To manage participant accommodation, food and transportation logistics
- To plan, facilitate, and evaluate program components, such as community-building and reflection activities, theological inquiry and conversation, leadership development, spiritual practices and liturgical worship, a canoe or hiking trip, social justice experiences, physical and recreational activities

Qualifications:

- At least one year of work, university, or college experience post-high school
- Experience working with youth
- Knowledge, skills and values that respectfully inform and inspire others in matters related to community, religion, theology and leadership
- Demonstrated skills that include: flexibility; creativity; curiosity; conscientiousness; organizational; conflict resolution
- Able and willing to be responsible for facilitating a safe, holistic and challenging experience for youth and other staff
- Some qualifications preferred in the following areas:
 - First Aid/CPR or NLS or ORCA Level I
 - Driver's license and ability to drive a Dodge Caravan with passengers
 - Canoe/Camping experience preferred.

To Apply: (Applications are due by Thursday, March 1st, 2012)

Submit a cover letter, CV/resume, and a two page double-spaced essay regarding your interest and qualifications for the position along with complete contact information for three reference people to:

Ian Fanning, Future Quest Coordinator
Queen's School of Religion
Queen's University
Kingston, Ontario K7L 3N6

Voice 613.533.6690
Fax 613.533.6879
Email future.quest@queensu.ca