DO THE RIGHT THING.
check in and make sure others are okay

DIRECT:
Approach the potential victim or the abuser:
“Hey why don’t I call you a cab and you can go home?”

DISTRACT:
An indirect and non-confrontational way to intervene:
“I think I heard your friends calling you over there”

DELEGATE:
Even if you don’t know the abuser or the victim, someone in the room might. Inform a bouncer or security of what you are seeing, or call 911.

DON’T JUST STOP AND STARE,
STOP AND CARE.
