The Dan School of Drama and Music at Queen's University strives to earn its reputation as one of the world's preeminent centres for the study and creation of drama, music and music theatre. We offer a range of undergraduate, graduate, and community outreach programs, including both practice and theory, and both the traditional and the innovative. In principle, the Dan School embraces all the many disciplines that collaborate to realize the professional performing arts. While studies and research in drama and music have comprehensive representation within the Dan School, the intersection of these two disciplines is given particular focus in the area of music theatre where there are opportunities for research, creation, and performance in repertoire ranging from opera to Broadway.

In the Dan School, we offer a welcoming environment in which the pursuit of excellence in artistic practice is accompanied by an education in the theory and history of the disciplines. Our students become excellent communicators, imaginative collaborators, and disciplined critical thinkers as well as developing extensive experience as creators, performers, and broadly skilled technicians in the theatre and the concert hall. Our shared facilities in the beautiful Isabel Bader Centre for the Performing Arts (https://www.queensu.ca/theisabel/), on the shore of Lake Ontario, offer state-of-the-art equipment and superb spaces such as a world-renowned Performance Hall, a Studio Theatre, a lake view Rehearsal Hall/Recording Studio, and a suite of smart classrooms and soundproof studio spaces.

Through our research and teaching we encourage those in our community, especially our students, to discover a meaningful and dignified place in the broader world, by educating their imaginations and encouraging them to think creatively in an ever more digitized, globalized, and diverse society. Some of our popular offerings include Music Theatre, Music Education, Composition, Acting, Vocal Music, Playwriting, Technical Production, online courses in Entrepreneurship and Innovation (including a certificate program), our summer courses in residence at the Shaw Festival, and our courses in Medieval performance taught at Herstmonceux Castle (https://www.queensu.ca/bisc/about-us/our-location/the-castle/) in England. We also offer an internship course in which students work with a professional arts organization. Our graduates are broadly resourceful thinkers and practitioners able to work comfortably and confidently in a wide range of professions. Studying Drama and Music at Queen's can take place in three main locations – Theological Hall, one of Queen's oldest buildings and often referred to as the most dramatic building on campus; Harrison-LeCaine Hall; or at the new, world-class Isabel Bader Centre for the Performing Arts.

Overview

At Queen's, you can balance the study of drama and music from theoretical and practical perspectives. Presentations and workshops by guest artists and scholars as well as student participation in mainstage and studio theatre productions and ensemble concerts for the public bring breadth and depth to our programs. For students interested in collaboration between the fields of Drama/Music and Film/Media, there is a Specialization Plan in Media and Performance Production (https://queensu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/arts-science/schools-departments-programs/drama-music/media-performance-production-specialization-arts-ba-honours/) (formerly known as Stage and Screen Studies). Queen's Music studies include courses in applied study (performance), musicology/ethnomusicology, music education, and theory and composition with a strong focus on the Western classical tradition. Drama at Queen's offers a range of focus areas including performance, production, theatre history, dramaturgy, and design.

The School offers Major, Medial and Minor/General Plans as part of the regular Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Arts (Honours) degree Programs, and also specialization degrees: the Bachelor of Music and the Bachelor of Music Theatre. Students who apply to B.A.Honours and B.Mus. programs... can also pursue a concurrent Bachelor of Education degree program with Queen's Faculty of Education.

The Bachelor of Music degree program is a four-year direct-entry degree program and is subject to special academic conditions including an audition, music theory and aural skills tests, and an interview. Students must also meet the minimum academic requirements for admission to the University (See below and Admission Regulation [https://queensu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/arts-science/admission-regulations/#text][12] for details). B.Mus. students achieving a grade of B+ or lower on the music theory test will be expected to do remedial work to strengthen their skills before commencing the program.

The Bachelor of Music Theatre degree program is a joint program with St. Lawrence College (Brockville). Students acquire practical skills in singing, dancing, and acting in the first two years of the program hosted by St. Lawrence College. This practical training is then augmented with two years academic study at Queen's to attain the B.M.T. degree.

The Specialization Plan in Media and Performance Production (MAPP) (https://queensu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/arts-science/schools-departments-programs/drama-music/media-performance-production-specialization-arts-ba-honours/) is ideal for students interested in combining courses from Film and Media Studies and the Dan School of Drama and Music. Not only do student draw together lessons learned in each program but there is a specific core of MAPP courses that place a high priority on the exploration and integration of media and performance across a variety of contexts, from moving image production to the integration of “media” into live arts. Students in MAPP have enhanced opportunities to work in both live and recorded presentations that incorporate music, sound, and performance studies.

Housed within the Faculty of Arts and Science and the Dan School of Drama and Music, this certificate was designed to allow students to develop an entrepreneurial mindset and to execute intrapreneurial innovation. Students will have the opportunity to study and practice skills in marketing and promotion as well as finance and business planning. Through a variety of interdisciplinary courses, students will be challenged to brainstorm, research, design, and present a new product or service to peers, end users, leadership teams, potential investors, and to online and digital publics.
