Overview
Jewish civilization has a recorded global history of 4,000 years. Drawing from texts spanning from the Hebrew Scriptures to post-modern writing, the study of the Jewish diasporas in their transnational historical and cultural contexts provides students with insight into the complexities of global culture, identity, religion, and politics. All Jewish Studies courses are offered in the History Department.

Advice to Students
Students considering a minor in Jewish Studies should consult with the Director of Jewish Studies. Those considering any advanced work related to Jewish Studies or Jewish professional work are encouraged to study Hebrew at Queen’s and abroad, especially in Israel, with prior approval of the Director.

No specific background is required to enrol in many Jewish studies courses. Students wishing to take advantage of the opportunity to study Jewish life in the context of the surrounding cultures are urged to consider a degree in Religion as a Major, Joint Honours, or Minor. A minor in Jewish Studies equips you to navigate an increasingly interconnected and multicultural world with greater sensitivity, respect, and awareness. It provides a unique lens through which you can examine historical, sociological, and religious issues, allowing you to develop a nuanced understanding of complex topics and hone your analytical abilities. This interdisciplinary approach fosters adaptability and a well-rounded perspective, traits that are highly desirable in today's rapidly changing job market. Furthermore, a minor in Jewish Studies equips you with strong research, writing, and communication skills, which are valuable assets in today's professional settings.

Future Prospects
In addition to providing an undergraduate program, Jewish studies, like History, offers a background for many careers requiring liberal arts training, especially strong writing, research, and speaking skills. These include public service, government, education, law, business, social work, clergy, graduate study, journalism, and communal service.
