3. Notes

A. The courses chosen must not duplicate work already completed either in university or pre-university study. If a student enters the program with advanced language/ grammar knowledge or speaks Spanish at the near-native level, the student is exempted from taking the language and grammar core courses noted in 1.A. and 1.B. These would be replaced with courses from SLAS_Options_A or SLAS_Options_B.

B. To register in SPAN 111 students must sign a form in the Departmental Office officially declaring that they have no knowledge of Spanish. A language placement test may apply.

C. Some courses in SLAS_Option_B may or may not cover topics directly involving Spanish and Latin American Studies, although students may approach instructors to see if assignments or papers could be written from this perspective.

D. Students must refer to the Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures to find a suitable substitution(s) if necessary.

E. Courses with significant Latin American content may be approved for inclusion in this degree program with permission of the Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures.

F. A maximum of 6.00 units from courses offered by other Faculties and Schools may be counted toward the program and/or Plan requirements. This includes courses in BMED, COMM, GLPH, LAW, NURS and courses in the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science.

Spanish and Latin American Studies Course Lists

The following lists contain courses offered through other Departments. In accordance with Academic Regulation 2.5 (Access to Classes), students do not have enrolment priority in all of these courses.
