Instructions for Completing this Form

Access to General Records

Be as specific as possible when describing the records you are requesting. Please provide the following information, if known:

1. A date, or date-range, associated with the record(s) you are requesting
2. The department in which the records are kept
3. Any information that will assist in locating the record

Access to Personal Information

When requesting access to your own personal information, be sure to include:

1. Your full name and any other names you may have previously used
2. Any identifying numbers you have associated with the University (e.g. Queen's University student number or employee number)
3. If requesting the information on behalf of someone else, you must provide proof of your authority to act for that individual

Correction of Personal Information

State the desired correction and, if appropriate, provide supporting documentation. In the event that the correction is not made, we will notify you and you may require that a statement of disagreement be attached to your personal information.

Cost of Your Request

Retrieving records takes time. The more specific your request is the more efficiently we will be able to respond. The University charges the fees prescribed under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. Some examples of charges include:

1. Time spent searching for records
2. Time spent preparing records for disclosure
3. Time spent developing queries for database searches

A detailed list of the fees prescribed under the Act is available on our website: queensu.ca/accessandprivacy/fees

If the fee associated with your request is expected to be $100.00 or more, we will provide you with a fee estimate. A 50% deposit is required on all fees estimated to be $100.00 or more before we will process your request.
