Welcome

Welcome to our campus! We are pleased that you have decided to visit our campus today and hope you’ll take the opportunity to discover and explore your options at Queen’s. We’re happy to help answer your questions about programs, what it’s like to be in university, and how to apply.

You’ll be great no matter where you go. But your greatest story starts at Queen’s.

Start here

School of Kinesiology and Health Studies (28 Division St)

Pick up your program for the day join a campus tour. Have your questions answered by Admission staff. Speak to representatives from Student Awards, Athletics, Awards and Financial Aid, Campus Services, and your AMS (clubs and societies).

Engineering and Applied Science

Academic and Student Interest Fair

10am - 2pm
Beamish-Munro Hall Atrium

Taking place both in the Atrium of Beamish-Munro Hall and throughout the building, you will have an opportunity to talk to faculty and student representatives from all of our engineering departments. First year students just starting their Engineering education will also be present to meet with you and answer your questions.

Building Tours

10am - 3pm
Beamish-Munro Hall Atrium

Beamish-Munro Hall is ‘home-base’ for first year engineering students. Built to support first-year problem based learning initiatives, Beamish-Munro Hall’s Integrated Learning Centre provides a multidisciplinary learning environment designed to complement the classroom experience, and enhance design, team and professional skills development. We are a ‘live’ building where the structure itself is monitored, and used as a lab. Please come to the Tour Desk to ask for a tour.

Presentation: Welcome and Introduction to the Engineering Program

10:15am, 11:30am, 1:30pm
Dupuis Auditorium

The Vice Dean (Academic) of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science will give an overview of the Queen’s Engineering Program. Presentations are generally 1 hour in length.

Presentation: Engineering 101 - “I Didn’t Know Engineers Did That!”

10:15am, 11:30am
Walter Light Hall Room 205

The Dean of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science will give a special talk about the many sides of Engineering. Presentations are generally 1 hour in length.

Competitive Design Teams

11am - 2pm
Beamish-Munro Hall

The Integrated Learning Centre provides space for a variety of competitive teams. Representatives from many of our design teams will be scattered throughout Beamish-Munro Hall to answer your questions.

Engineering Society Drop In

10am -3pm
Beamish-Munro Hall

Located at the entrance to the Integrated Learning Centre, the Engineering Society of Queen’s University is one of the oldest representative bodies for engineering students in Canada and continues to be a leader in student initiatives.
