AVS Frequently Asked Questions

Who should attend Alumni Volunteer Summit?

Alumni Volunteer Summit is a conference that brings together current and prospective Queen's volunteers for professional development and networking. Whether you volunteer with a Queen's University Alumni Association Branch or Board of Directors, help to coordinate your class reunion, volunteer with your faculty or sit on University Council, this conference is for you. If you're new to volunteering, this annual event is an ideal way to meet and learn from other experienced volunteers and volunteer leaders.

Why should I attend Alumni Volunteer Summit?

Attendees can expect to learn transferable skills that can be applied to their own work, both as volunteers and in their respective career fields. Attendees will also have the option of receiving a certificate of completion.

Focused on change management and creating opportunities for innovation while honouring tradition, this year's conference features faculty speakers Tina Dacin, Carol Beatty and Queen's Principal and Vice Chancellor, Daniel R. Woolf.

There is also an opportunity to network with other alumni and school administrators.

Where will Alumni Volunteer Summit take place?

At the Donald Gordon Conference Centre in Kingston, Ontario. Delegates will have the opportunity to book accommodation at the DGC for an additional fee when they register.

Is there a fee for Alumni Volunteer Summit? What does this include?

The cost for this conference opportunity is $35 (General alumni) or $25 (Recent graduates, 2006 – 2016) which includes informative workshops and Queen's faculty speakers, invaluable networking opportunities, Friday dinner at the DGC Coach House Pub, Saturday breakfast, lunch, snacks, parking, all-day coffee, registration material and all facility amenities.

This price does NOT include accommodation. If delegates wish to stay at the Donald Gordon Centre, additional fees will apply ($142 / night).

Is the Donald Gordon Centre accessible?

Yes, the centre is fully accessible.

Where can I park?

The Donald Gordon Centre includes parking for all residents and conference attendees.

Is there a dress code for the weekend?

Dress for the conference portion of the weekend is business casual. If you plan to attend the Alumni Awards Gala on Saturday evening, please note that this is a black-tie welcome event.

I noticed "GradBash" is listed as an optional activity on Friday afternoon. What is this?

GradBash is an annual celebration for graduating students hosted by the Queen's University Alumni Association. The vision of GradBash 2017 is to welcome the graduating class into their Queen's University Alumni Association by inspiring continued engagement, and introducing the power of the Queen's global network, alumni benefits, programs and services. AVS delegates are welcome to pop by Grant Hall to say congratulations and network with the newest members of the QUAA! #QGrad17

What is the QUAA AGM?

All graduates of Queen's University are members of the Queen's University Alumni Association. The Association is headed up by a volunteer Board of Directors, responsible for establishing priorities and policies that further the mission of the Association and that advance the strategic priorities of the Association.

The QUAA Annual General Meeting (AGM) at AVS is an opportunity for the Board of Directors to provide an update on the year's activities and priorities for the upcoming year, officially install the new Board of Directors, and to solicit feedback. All alumni are welcome (and encouraged!) to attend the AGM. However, voting privileges are reserved for the following groups: Branch Presidents (or designates), QUAA Board members, appointed members of University Council and Senate, current Student Leaders (AMS, SGPS, QSAA) and the Principal of Queen's University (or designate).

Please visit the QUAA web page for additional information on the QUAA and the Board of Directors.

How far of a walk is it to main campus from the Donald Gordon Centre?

Depending on your pace, it will likely take between 15 - 20 minutes to walk from the DGC to main campus.

Will there be time to visit campus/ shop at the Campus Bookstore etc?

Yes! Anyone coming into town on Friday is welcome to attend GradBash, explore campus, visit the Campus Bookstore, Tricolour Outlet, ARC, and/or the Agnes Etherington Art Centre (admission is free). The conference schedule includes hours of operation for easy reference.
