

April 6 - 7 at the Donald Gordon Conference Centre

Alumni Volunteer Summit aspires to be the premier forum to connect, enrich, educate and celebrate Queen's volunteers, as the Queen's University Alumni Association strives to create strong, focused and sustainable volunteer organizations and initiatives around the world.

Focused on “Building a Better Volunteer: From Recruitment to Recognition”, volunteers at this year’s conference will be encouraged to reflect on their own personal and professional growth, as well as the overall strength and sustainability of their volunteer teams. While thinking about strong, positive team dynamics, attendees will consider concepts such as diversity and inclusion in the Queen’s volunteer context.
