

FROM IDEA TO ACTION

Harnessing Volunteer Enthusiasm

Calgary Branch Johnson Award

History

- Started in 2001
- Named after the first recipients Ernie (Meds'38) and Edna Johnson whose generosity and dedication to their alma mater and community span more than 30 years

Support

- Branch volunteers
- Past recipients remain involved on selection committee
- Queen's staff in Alumni Relations (Kim Day) and Events (Terri Flindall)
- Local community organizations

2019 Alumni
Volunteer Summit

CELEBRATE
CONNECT LEARN

Goals

- The Johnson Award pays tribute to lifelong contributors to Queen's University, the Alumni Association, and the Calgary community
- Carry Ernie and Edna's name and spirit for future generations of remarkable Queen's alumni in Calgary

Outcomes

- Changes to 2017 event
 - Venue changed to Calgary Zoo
 - Dinner and mingling
 - Calgary Opera and YMCA
 - Creative marketing
 - Personalized touches for recipient Evan H. Hazell, Sc'81
 - Discounted rate for Young Alumni

What's Next?

- Host a similarly personalized Johnson Award in 2019

Learn More

- queensu.ca/alumni/awards/johnson
- Jackie Lewis, Branch President:
calgary_branch@tricolour.queensu.ca
- queensu.ca/alumni/get-involved/branches-chapters-and-clubs/directory