Appearing Before the Board of Studies

Normally the Board of Studies will make its decision on the basis of your written appeal and the documentation used in the appeal to the Associate Dean (Studies). However, in cases where facts are in dispute, or there are issues of credibility, the student or the Board of Studies may request an oral presentation in addition to the written letter of appeal. If you wish to make an oral presentation, please indicate in the box below. You have the right to be accompanied by an individual of your choice (e.g. friend, parent, dispute resolution advisor, or other representative). Note, if you choose to appear before the Board of Studies, the Associate Dean (Studies) will also appear to explain his or her decision.

Yes, I wish to make an oral presentation to the Board

I have read and understood the process and regulations governing appeals to the Board of Studies.
