PROGRAM PLAN

Applicable to students admitted prior to May 2018

The Bachelor of Global Development Studies program plan consists of 90.0 units. 60.0 of these units are electives which can be taken from any subject, at any level and in any order, as long you have (or obtain) the prerequisites for any 200 or 300-level courses. The other 30.0 units must be taken as described below. Note: Courses may not be offered every term.

Core courses (12.0 units) offered online

- DEVS 100 (6.0 units): Canada and the “Third World”
- DEVS 230 (3.0 units): The Global Political Economy of Development
- DEVS 240 (3.0 units): Culture and Development

Option courses (18.0 units) offered online

- DEVS 220 (3.0 units): Introduction to Indigenous Studies
- DEVS 221 (3.0 units): Topics in Indigenous Human Ecology
- DEVS 260 (3.0 units): Globalization Gender and Development
- DEVS 280 (3.0 units): Global Engagement
- DEVS 361 (3.0 units): Policy Advocacy and Field Specific Skills
- DEVS 362 (3.0 units): Globally Engaged Experiential Learning
- ENGL 259 (3.0 units): Global Shakespeare
- FILM 303 (3.0 units): Contemporary World Media
- GLPH 271 (3.0 units): Global and Population Health
- GLPH 471 (3.0 units): Advanced Global and Population Health
- HIST 200 (3.0 units): India and the World
- HIST 207 (3.0 units): Global Indigenous Histories
- HIST 214 (3.0 units): Food in Global History
- HIST 270 (3.0 units): Contemporary China
- LAW 202 (3.0 units): Aboriginal Law
- LLCU 209 (3.0 units): Rio de Janeiro
- MUSC 289 (3.0 units): World Musics

Electives (60 units)

60.0 additional units selected from all course offerings

Note: only 6.0 units of courses from other faculties may be used in a degree program