

Methods Workshop: Global Actors and Community-Level Security in the Extractive Sector

Date: Friday September 16, 2016

Venue: Delta Kingston Waterfront Hotel, Rm TBC - 1 Johnson St, Kingston, ON K7L 5H7

7:45AM- 8.30AM : Arrival, Free Registration and Breakfast

8:30AM: Welcome and Keynote

Dr. Stéfanie von Hlatky (Queen's University), Director of CIDP

Dr. Jeffrey Davidson (CSR Counsellor, Global Affairs Canada) – invited

9:00AM- 10:00AM: PANEL 1 : Corporate Social Responsibility and Conflict in the Extractive Sector

Chair: Claude Voillat (ICRC)

- Priscilla Apronti (Queen's University), "Examining the Nexus between Corporate Social Responsibility and Stakeholder Perspective and Reaction towards the Natural Resource Extractive Industry"
- Olivier Jobin (Université de Montréal), "How Mining Conflicts Become News: Investigation of the Selection and Reporting Biases Using ACLED, UCDEP-GED, GDELT and ICEWS in the Mining Sector"

Experts/Discussants: Dr. Uwafiokun Idemudia (York University)

Dr. Nathan Andrews (Queen's University)

-
- 10 Minutes Break
-

10:15AM- 11:30 AM: PANEL 2: Global Governance Frameworks, Human Security and Human Rights

Chair: Alan Bryden (DCAF)

- Raynold Wonder Alorse (Queen's University), "Security, Human Rights and International Business 'the Canadian Way'? A Study of Canadian Transnational Mining Firms in South Africa and Ghana"
- Jason McSparren (University of Massachusetts, Boston), "The EITI Multi-Stakeholder Working Group: Potential beyond the limit of reporting?"
- Abigail Kalandula (University of Massachusetts, Boston), Title TBC

Experts/Discussants:

Bernarda Elizalde, Co-founder and Principal for Responsible Mineral Development

Dr. Jane Parpart (University of Massachusetts, Boston)

-
- 20 Minutes Break and Networking

.....
12:00PM – 1:15PM: PANEL 3 (Lunch Panel): Roundtable of Experts – Research, Government, Private and Not-for-profit Insights

Chair: Dr. Frédéric Mérand, Université de Montréal

- Isabelle Brissette, Rio Tinto
- Marie-Joëlle Zahar, Université de Montréal
- Claude Voillat, ICRC
- Alan Bryden, DCAF

.....
15 minutes Break and Networking
.....

1:30PM – 2:30PM: PANEL 4 - Natural Resource Governance, Conflict and Security

Chair: Almero Retief (Rio Tinto)

Timothy Adivilah (University of Massachusetts, Boston), “Artisanal and small-scale mining and new challenges to social science research. A study of socio-environmental governance in (informal) resource extraction”

Kuzi Charamba (McGill University), Title TBC.

Discussants/Expert: Dr. J. Andrew Grant (Queen’s University)
Dr. Nadège Compaoré (York University)

.....
10 Minutes Break and Networking
.....

2:40PM-4:00PM: PANEL 5 - Canada at Home and Abroad: Substate Actors and Public-Private Partnerships

Chair: Michael Brown (McGill University)

Leah Sarson (Queen’s University), “The Unanticipated Agency of Substate Actors: Indigenous peoples and Canadian foreign policy”

Shingirai Taodzera (University of Ottawa), “An accident of history or template for prudent resource governance? Analysing Botswana's public-private partnership model”

Marc-André Anzueto (Université de Montréal), Title TBC

Experts/Discussants: Dr. Tim Shaw
Dr. Pauler Butler

.....
4:15PM-4:30PM: Thank you, possible next steps re: output and closing remarks by Dr. Stéfanie von Hlatky + Networking