

Epigraphic Friday (and Saturday) 2022

Program

Friday, March 4

- 10.00-10.30 Sebastian PRIGNITZ (Akademie Wien): News from Kallias (IG I³ 52).
- 10.30-11.00 Helmut LOTZ (Akademie Wien): A new edition of the later Tribute lists (IG I³ 281-290).
- 11.00-11.30 Robert K. PITT (CYA): New Athenian inscriptions from early travellers.
- 11.30-12.00 Georgios TSOLAKIS (ISAW/NYU): New honorific inscriptions from Lyttos and the chronology of the eponymous magistrates.
- 12.00-12.20 Marco ZANGHERI (Roma, La Sapienza): An inscription from Hyllarima.
- 12.20-2.00 Break
- 2.00-2.45 Sebastian PRIGNITZ and Gerhard THÜR (Akademie Wien): The liability of the architect Perillos from juristic and archaeological perspective ('Stele of the Punishment' from Epidaurus, lines 51-55).
- 2.45-3.15 John MA (Columbia): Μακαρισται: social ritual and honours at Mesembria.
- 3.15-3.45 Cédric BRÉLAZ (IAS/University of Fribourg): From an epitaph to a dedication to Herakles: A new reading of SEG XXX 593 (Serres, Eastern Macedonia).

Saturday, March 5

- 10.00-10.30 Dobrinka CHIEKOVA (The College of New Jersey): A woman who became Hekate: an inscription from Mesambria.
- 10.30-11.00 Mat CARBON (Queen's University, Kingston): On a few non-Halikarnassian 'Halikarnassian' inscriptions.
- 11.00-11.20 Felipe ROJAS (Brown University): A new Lydian inscription from Denizli.
- 11.20-11.30 Break
- 11.30-12.15 Marijana Riel (University of Belgrade): A new opisthographic stele from Smyrna (?) with a Greek and a Roman inscription.
- 12.15-12.45 Angelos CHANIOTIS (IAS): Remarks on new inscriptions from Asia Minor: An aretology of Theos Hypsistos from Daskyleion and two miracles from Lydia.