For the Summer term 2021 the Department of Classics may require graduate Teaching Assistants for the course listed below (conditional upon enrolment figures and budgetary approval).

CLST 205 Ancient Humour
CLST 214 Ancient Science
CLST Greek and Roman Epic

Duties may include:

- General duties to assist the professor
- Marking
- Meeting with and/or responding to (email) student queries
- Facilitating discussion groups

These teaching assistantships are for the support of online courses. Some training and preparation is needed before the start of the course. Candidates must be prepared to work outside the regular 9-5 work week, and have access to the internet and a computer that meets minimum requirements. Experience with learning management systems (eg OnQ) and videoconferencing software (eg Adobe Connect) would be an asset.

Graduate TA-ships will only be offered to candidates in Group B, C or D after the qualified candidates in Group A have been exhausted.

Group A: for qualified graduate students registered as:

(i) students in a department or program in which the TA-ship will be offered; or
(ii) students in an interdisciplinary program with TA budget resources, and for whom the TA-ship has been granted as part of the funding commitment offered by Queen's University.

Group B: for qualified graduate students registered as:

(i) students in a department or program in which the TA-ship will be offered; or
(ii) students in an interdisciplinary program with TA budget resources, and for whom
(iii) the TA-ship will not form part of the funding commitment offered by Queen's University; or
(iv) there is currently no funding commitment provided by Queen's University.

Group C: for qualified graduate students that have previously held a TA-ship or TF-ship for the Employer.

Group D: for qualified graduate students that have not yet met the criteria as set out in A, B, or C.

Contract hours

The hours in the TA contract will be determined on the basis of the actual course enrolment. The estimate number or hours is around 68.

The primary purpose of teaching assistantships is to support undergraduate teaching. Consequently, academic excellence in the course for which teaching assistantships exist is mandatory.

Please address your application* and other relevant material to classics@queensu.ca by 4 pm on Friday, March 26th, 2021.

*What to include in your application: a cover letter with brief statement of why you want to TA and relevant experience, your CV, and an unofficial transcript(s).
