

Biosciences Complex: Room 1102

Additional Photos:

Image Description: The entryway door of room 1102 in Biosciences Complex is a set of four (4) doors with fixed silver handles on each door. The two doors on the right are designated as entry doors. An accessible automatic door button is located on the wall to the right of the doors.

Image Description: View of the classroom from the instructor's area at the front of the room. There are rows of auditorium chairs with tablets for students. This classroom has tiered steps to access seats in the middle and back of the room. The entryway doors are located at the back of the room in the middle. This room is accessible for instructors using a ramp at the far right of the classroom.

Image Description: View of the classroom from a student seat near the rear of the room. In front are empty rows of auditorium chairs. The instructor podium is located at the front of the room in the middle. The front of the classroom has a three large video wall displays. This classroom is accessible for students at the back of the room and at the front using a ramp at the left.