

Ellis Hall: Room 319

Additional Photos:

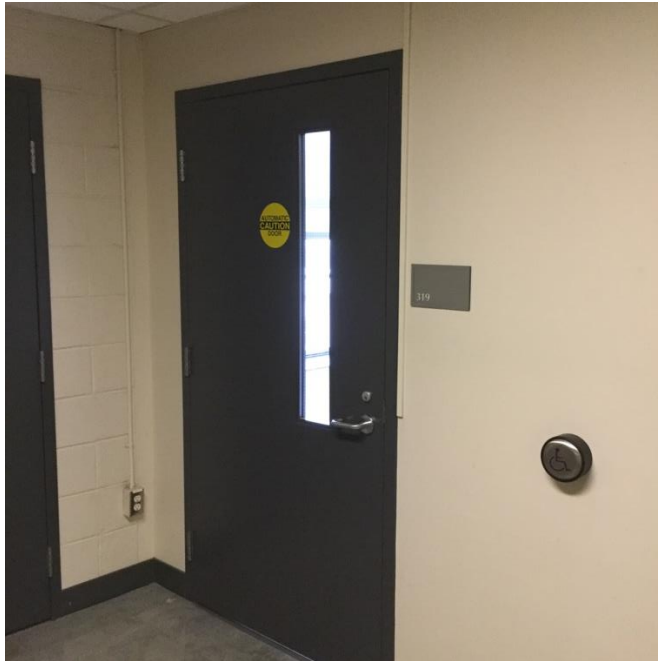

Image Description: The entryway of classroom 319 in Ellis Hall is a grey door with a silver handle on the right side of the door.

Image Description: Podium is equipped with a phone, an outlet, lecture capture and a set of microphones. There is a phone located on the right side of the desk.

Image Description: View of the classroom from the instructor's podium. There are multiple chairs with tables attached for students. Chairs can be arranged according to instructor's preference. This classroom is accessible for instructors.

For more information about accessibility on campus, please refer to the Accessibility Hub or the Facilities Building Directory.