

Isabel Bader Center for Performing Art: Room 312

Additional Photos:

Image Description: The entryway of room 312 in the Isabel Bader Center for Performing Arts is an orange door with a silver handle on the right side.

Image Description: View of the classroom from the instructor's podium. The classroom has four rows of long tables with chairs for students. A piano is located at the back of the classroom. The entryway door is located at the back of the classroom on the left side. This classroom is accessible for instructors.

Image Description: View of the classroom from a student seat near the rear of the room. In front are multiple rows of tables and chairs. The instructor's podium is at the front of the room on the left. A digital projector on the ceiling, projects onto a screen that extends from the ceiling. A whiteboard is located at the front of the classroom. This classroom is accessible for students.

Image Description: Podium equipped with various connection types for presenting information, as well as an outlet.

For more information about accessibility on campus, please refer to the Accessibility Hub or the Facilities Building Directory.