

Biosciences Complex: Room 2109

Additional Photos:

Image Description: The podium is equipped with a set of microphones and connection cords to project media.

Image Description: The entrance to room 2109 is a wooden door with a handle on the right side. The entrance is an automatic door.

Image Description: The image shows the students view of the podium while seated in the classroom. The students' tables are circular and have chairs with castors. The podium is equipped with an instructors chair.

Image Description: The instructors view while facing the students. There are whiteboards on the walls of the room. Media is projected onto the whiteboards at multiple points around the room.

For more information about accessibility on campus, please refer to the Accessibility Hub or the Facilities Building Directory.