

Mackintosh-Corry Hall: Room D216

Additional Photos:

Image Description: Doors entering the room D216 in Mackintosh-Corry Hall. The doors are a set of double doors and do not have an automatic door opener.

Image Description: Top-down view of the instructor's podium. The podium is equipped with a document camera, lecture capture as well as a set of microphones. The podium is height adjustable.

Image Description: Instructor's view of the desks throughout the room. There are four rows of seats on tiers raising towards the back of the room. There is wall art on the back wall of the room. Chairs and tables are stationary with the chairs attached to the desks.

Image Description: Student's view while sitting in the classroom. There are two rows of seats facing the front of the class as well as the podium at the front right of the room. When presenting media images are projected on the front wall of the room which is also a whiteboard wall.

For more information about accessibility on campus, please refer to the Accessibility Hub or the Facilities Building Directory.