

Walter Light Hall: Room 212

Additional Photos:

Image Description: The podium is equipped with a document camera, lecture capture, lighting control, an outlet and a set of connection cords to present media on the projector.

Image Description: The entrance to room B201 in Mackintosh-Corry Hall is a grey door with a doorknob on the right side of the door. On the wall to the right of the door is an automatic door controller. There are two entrances to the room, and both are accessible, equipped with automatic door openers.

Image Description: The rows of seating have tiers towards the back of the room. There are stairs on either side of the room to access the back tiers. The seats are attached to the desks and there is no power at the tables. At the front of the room are two wheelchair accessible seats with chairs pulled up to the desks.

Image Description: This is the student's view when facing the instructor. The podium is at the front of the room on the left. When presenting, the image is projected on the wall to the right of the instructor's podium.

For more information about accessibility on campus, please refer to the Accessibility Hub or the Facilities Building Directory.