Freedom and Flexibility in a Final Project: The Unessay

Kate Rowbotham and Scott Whetstone, Smith School of Business
- No set format/approach
- Topic of choice
- Present however
- Evaluated on compelling/effectiveness
- Developed by Daniel Paul O’Donnell
Giving the Makeup Industry a Makeover
Early Career Behaviours for Future Leaders

1. Be Charismatic
   - 60%
   - Charismatic leaders are those who captivate the people around them, while inspiring confidence and enthusiasm in a positive, magnetic way. Charismatic leaders inspire others to be the best version of themselves through vision and integrity within a company.

2. Be Self-Aware
   - 85%
   - Self-aware leaders are able to understand their own strengths and weaknesses, which helps them make better decisions and grow professionally.

3. Build a Network
   - 95%
   - Building a network is crucial for career growth. Leaders who are well-connected can open doors and advance their careers.

4. Be Confident
   - 85%
   - Confident leaders inspire confidence in others, enabling teams to perform at their best.

5. Be Passionate
   - 50%
   - Passionate leaders inspire others with their enthusiasm and drive, leading to increased productivity and motivation.

"The best way to predict your future is to create it."
The Good
The Ugly
What’s Next