

TEACHING POSITIONS AVAILABLE – Winter 2026
CUST 806 Topics in Indigenous Studies
Cultural Studies Program
Queen's University, Kingston, ON CAN K7L 3N6

The Cultural Studies Graduate Program at Queen's University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching a Special Topics graduate course in Indigenous Studies. This is an on-campus course with an expected enrolment of 10 students. Candidates should have a Ph. D, and teaching experience at the university level in Cultural Studies. This class is scheduled for Tuesdays 2:30-5:30. This is a winter term appointment, for the period of January 1, 2026, to April 30, 2026, with classes in session from January 5, 2026, to April 6, 2026.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority. Please indicate in your application if you have a valid legal work status in Canada. Applications from all qualified candidates will be considered in the applicant pool. In order to support your employment at Queen's, we require you to indicate whether or not you will need a work permit.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Dr. Marc Epprecht, Acting Director, Cultural Studies, at cust.epprecht@queensu.ca.

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at <https://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/qufa/collective-agreements-lous-moas>.

Applications should be submitted as one single PDF file and include:

- a complete and current curriculum vitae (CV)
- a brief description of how you would approach teaching this course in Cultural Studies, and proposed course outline

- any other materials the applicant wishes to submit (such as a letter of intent, teaching dossier etc.); and
- the names of two referees who may be contacted

Please arrange to have applications sent directly to: Dr. Marc Epprecht, Acting Director, Cultural Studies, at cust.epprecht@queensu.ca.

Applications will be received until October 30, 2025. Review of applications will commence shortly thereafter, and the final appointment is subject to budgetary approval.

Additional information about the Cultural Studies Graduate Program can be found at <https://www.queensu.ca/culturalstudies/>.
