

International Summer Institute in Guadalajara, Mexico, May 21 - June 10 "Diversity & Democracy: Self-Rule, Shared Rule and Secession"

View Schedule

Co-Directors: Alain-G. Gagnon (Université du Québec à Montréal) gagnon.alain@uqam.ca
Jacques Bertrand (University of Toronto) jacques.bertrand@utoronto.ca

Led by Queen's University, the Université du Québec à Montréal and the University of Toronto, the Summer Institute will be conducted in partnership with the Universidad de Guadalajara (UdeG) while 20 international students will attend.

Main goals: To provide a well-structured, collaborative, and inter-disciplinary learning environment for students whose research is relevant to the themes of the EDG project (see www.edg-gde.ca); to study diversity and democracy from different theoretical perspectives, and; to establish an international forum for exchange.

Language: The principal language of work was English although there were some public events held either in French or in Spanish.

Location: The Summer Institute will take place at the Hotel Villa Montecarlo in Chapala, on the outskirts of Guadalajara.
