View Schedule

Co-Directors: Alain-G. Gagnon (Université du Québec à Montréal) gagnon.alain@uqam.ca
Victor Armony (Université du Québec à Montréal) armony.victor@uqam.ca

Led by Queen's University, the Université du Québec à Montréal and the University of Toronto, the Summer Institute was conducted in partnership with the Universidad de Guadalajara (UdeG) which hosted this international event. 24 international students attended.

Main goals: To provide a well-structured, collaborative, and inter-disciplinary learning environment for students whose research is relevant to the themes of the EDG project (see www.edg-gde.ca); to study diversity and democracy from different theoretical perspectives, and; to establish an international forum for exchange.

Language: The principal language of work was English although there were some public events held either in French or in Spanish.

Location: The Summer Institute took place in Chapala, on the outskirts of Guadalajara.
