

TEACHING POSITION AVAILABLE – Winter 2021
ENSC 320/3.0 – Wildlife Issues in a Changing World
School of Environmental Studies
Queen’s University, Kingston, ON CAN K7L 3N6

The School of Environmental Studies at Queen’s University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching a course in Wildlife Issues in a Changing World (ENSC 320/3.0). This course will be offered remotely with an expected enrolment of ~100 students. Candidates should have an M.Sc. or Ph.D, and teaching experience at the university level in wildlife issues, biodiversity conservation, ecosystem management or a closely related discipline. This is a winter term appointment for the period January 1, 2021 to April 30, 2021 with classes in session from January 11, 2021 – April 9, 2021.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen’s is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: School of Environmental Studies, Dr. Ryan Danby, Director, ryan.danby@queensu.ca

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at <http://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/queens-qufa-collective-agreement>.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship, however, all applications must include one of the following statements: “I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada”; OR, “I am not a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada”. Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, letters of reference from two (2) referees, and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a letter of intent, teaching dossier, etc. Please arrange to have applications and supporting letters emailed directly to: Dr. Ryan Danby, Director, School of Environmental Studies at ryan.danby@queensu.ca

Applications will be received until November 30, 2020. Review of applications will commence shortly thereafter, and the final appointment is subject to budgetary approval. Additional information about the School of Environmental Studies can be found at <http://www.queensu.ca/ensc>
