Financial Confidence For Graduate Students

Host: Susan Reynolds, BScH, MHA, CFP.

Do you get paid in large, infrequent amounts? Do you struggle to stretch your money to match your needs? Are you carrying debt that is costing you interest or anguish? Do you worry how you’ll manage if your funding changes? Do you have a family you need to help support while you’re at school? Do you want to start working ahead on your financial future?

If any of this sounds like you, this session will offer tools and information about finances and money management to help you feel more confident and resilient about your future.

- Learn how to complete a realistic budget
- Learn how to recognize good debt versus bad debt and how to manage both
- Learn what resources are available to help you look after your family
- Learn what you can do at this point to work ahead on your future stability
