

HEAD, DEPARTMENT OF CRITICAL CARE MEDICINE
Queen's University
Kingston, Ontario, Canada

Queen's University invites applications for the position of Head of the Department of Critical Care Medicine. We are searching for an outstanding academic physician with proven administrative experience and leadership and clinical skills who, as Head, will develop and manage teams that will foster continuing excellence in patient care, teaching and research at Queen's and its affiliated teaching hospital, Kingston Health Sciences Centre (including Kingston General Hospital and Hotel Dieu Hospital). The qualified applicant must provide evidence of an ability to lead and work in an interdisciplinary, collaborative environment as well as demonstrated record of scholarly achievement.

Operating at the Kingston General Hospital site of the Kingston Health Sciences Centre in a medical/surgical ICU with 33 beds and over 1200 admissions per year the Critical Care Medicine service provides tertiary critical care services for the region of Southeastern Ontario. The Department delivers a fully Royal College-accredited Critical Care Medicine training program and has a highly productive research program with an international reputation for innovation and excellence. Queen's University is located in historic Kingston, between Toronto and Ottawa on the shores of Lake Ontario. This university city offers a unique mix of year-round recreational, cultural, and academic opportunities. One of Canada's leading universities, Queen's has a long-standing reputation for academic excellence, research and a diverse and vibrant learning environment. Queen's faculty enjoy a collegial work environment and superior resources.

Applications and nominations, the former to be accompanied by a letter summarizing leadership and administrative experience, a curriculum vitae and the names and full contact information of three referees, are to be directed to: Dr. Jane Philpott, Search Committee Chair, c/o Katie Roberts, Faculty of Health Sciences, Macklem House, Queen's University, 18 Barrie Street, Kingston, Ontario, Canada, K7L 3N6 or by email to katie.roberts@queensu.ca. Review of applications and nominations will commence January 4, 2021 and will continue until the position is filled. Support to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that considers an applicant's accessibility needs, will be provided in the recruitment processes. If you require accommodation during the interview process, please contact Katie Roberts as indicated above.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity, and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous/Aboriginal people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQA+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens/permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin; however, all applications must include one of the following statements: I am a Canadian citizen/permanent resident of Canada; OR I am not a Canadian citizen/permanent resident of Canada. Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.
