

Standard Tithe Agreement

This agreement must be used by all departments administering tithing fees in order to comply with research funding agency requirements. A tithe is defined as a fee charged for the use of shared services, equipment or supplies. Departments may charge tithing fees as a way to recover costs for these shared resources. Departments are required to complete an updated agreement on an annual basis covering the research fiscal period (April 1st to March 31st) and obtain the required authorizations. Tithing fees must be reconciled by departments on an annual basis with charges posted to the General Ledger by March month-end (please refer to the Financial Services website for March journal entry cut-off dates).

Procedures

Departments may choose to charge tithing fees in order to recover costs for shared services, equipment, and supplies by completing the following steps:

- The department must complete an updated agreement on an annual basis. Completed and signed agreements must be kept on file by departments for seven years and may be requested for audit purposes.
- Departments are responsible for processing journal entries to charge the tithe fees based on the schedule and calculations specified in the agreement. Please ensure a copy of the agreement and supporting calculations are attached to each journal entry. Journals must be approved by an individual at a higher level than the preparer. Accounts used in the journal entry must reflect the appropriate expense accounts.
- The agreement must be provided to all researchers within the department who utilize shared resources. Researchers choosing to take part in the tithe agreement must provide their authorization or they will be given the choice to opt out.
