CHANGE IN QUEEN'S POSTAL SERVICES STARTING IN THE NEW YEAR

Effective January 1, 2022, Queen's Postal Services' (QPS) delivery schedule will be adjusted to better reflect reductions in incoming and outgoing mail volumes.

Daily deliveries and pickups will continue for departments that receive high mail volumes, however departments receiving lower volumes of mail will be reduced to delivery every second day. These amendments to the delivery schedule will allow QPS to improve efficiency while ensuring to continue to meet client needs.

Details of the revised delivery schedule are available at: <https://www.queensu.ca/procurement/postal-services/delivery-schedule>

[FYI: Mail for GPPL will now come in and go out every second day starting in January].
