

NEWSLETTER

From the Department of Geography & Planning

Tuesday, February 22, 2022

Volume 5, No. 22

CALENDAR

Tuesday, February 22 – Friday, February 25: Mid-Term Reading Week. Enjoy your week everyone!

Thursday, February 24; 6:00 p.m.; Online: Empowering Others Lecture Series. Dr. Janelle Brady (School of Early Childhood Studies) will lead the discussion. Register at <https://empowering-others-lecture-series.eventbrite.ca>.

Monday February 28: In-person learning resumes for Winter Term.

UPCOMING THESIS EXAMINATION

Friday, February 25; 9:00 a.m.; MS Teams: Reza Aalaeifar's Master's Oral Thesis Examination. Thesis title "A Comprehensive Review on the Applications of Stereography and Stereophotogrammetry in Architectural Documentation." Supervisor: Dr. George Bevan.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

City Building Ryerson welcomes applications to its Postdoctoral Fellowship as part of its new partnership with the School of Urban and Regional Planning at Ryerson and the Greenbelt Foundation. This Mitacs Accelerate funded opportunity supports researchers studying the impacts of climate change and land use policy on food security in Ontario. Apply by March 31, 2022. More information can be found on their website.

Timmins Martelle Heritage Consultants (TMHC) is an established heritage firm based in London Ontario. They are hiring for the 2022 field season for work based from London. People in all stages of their education and at all levels of experience are encouraged to apply. They are accepting applications for: Archaeological Field Technicians, Field Mapping Technicians and Archaeological Field Directors. To apply, forward a cover letter and resume to info@tmhc.ca. Use subject line "2022 Field Season" and indicate which position you are applying for. For more information please visit www.tmhc.ca/jobs.

FACULTY FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

The Water Research Foundation - Unsolicited Research Program

OTHER

2022 Undergraduate Student Summer Research Fellowship \(USSRF\)

NSERC Undergraduate Student Research Award \(USRA\)

EDITED AND PRODUCED BY JOAN KNOX