

November 14, 2023 |
Vol. 7, No. 10

GEOGRAPHY AND PLANNING WEEKLY

Congratulations, Dr. Prouse!

On Friday, November 10, 2023, Dr. Carolyn Prouse was honoured by the Kingston & District Labour Council at the 2023 Oliver Doyle Activist Awards Banquet. Carolyn was presented the “Rising Star Award” in recognition of her ongoing work with the Queen's University Faculty Association as Equity Representative. Congratulations, Carolyn, and thank you for your continued service!

Dr. Patricia Collins

Associate Professor

Department of Geography and
Planning, Queen's University

Geography and Planning Seminar Series Fall 2023

11/22

03:30 - 05:00 Mackintosh-Corry Hall D214

“Evaluating Ontario’s First Full-
Year School Street Initiatives:
Contrasting Perspectives from Students, Parents, and Residents”

Dr. Godlewska in Kingston Life

In the most recent issue of Kingston Life magazine, Professor Emerita Dr. Anne Godlewska from Queen's Department of Geography and Planning discusses her journey with chocolate, from fairly sourced cacao beans to the unique creations offered by Choc Chique, Anne's local chocolate enterprise.

Read the full article here:

<https://7c1e077b.flowpaper.com/KLNovember2023/#page=20>

FALL CONVOCATION 2023

From November 13 to 17, 2023, convocation ceremonies are taking place at Grant Hall.

Above, fall graduate Dr. Elizabeth Nelson shares a big day with PhD candidate Hannah Hunter. Congratulations!

Call for Book Reviewer – No One's Witness

The Journal of Critical Race Inquiry is seeking a reviewer for the following book: No One's Witness.

Syd Zolf's No One's Witness begins with the last three lines of a poem by Jewish Nazi holocaust survivor Paul Celan— "No one / bears witness for the / witness"—to theorize the poetics and im/possibility of witnessing, particularly setting into relation the holocaust and transatlantic slavery and its afterlives. Drawing on Black studies, continental philosophy, queer theory, experimental poetics and art, Zolf asks what it means to witness from the incalculable position of "No One." No One's Witness interrogates the limits and thresholds of witnessing, outside the bounds of the sovereign individual, hauntologically informed by the fleshly no-thingness that has been historically ascribed to blackness.

If you are interested in reviewing this text, please email Kesha Fevrier at kesha.fevrier@queensu.ca.

Join us for the launch of GEORGE LOVELL'S *DEATH IN THE SNOW

Wednesday, November 15, 7pm,
Novel Idea, 156 Princess Street Refreshments!

What the book is about

Not content with the spoils that came his way from the conquest of Mexico and Guatemala, Pedro de Alvarado, lured by tales of the riches of the Inca Empire, sought to muscle in on the conquest of Peru. Dramatic, tragic, and compelling, Death in the Snow recounts the delusion of one headstrong conquistador and mourns the loss of untold Indigenous lives, casualties of Alvarado's lust for fame and fortune.

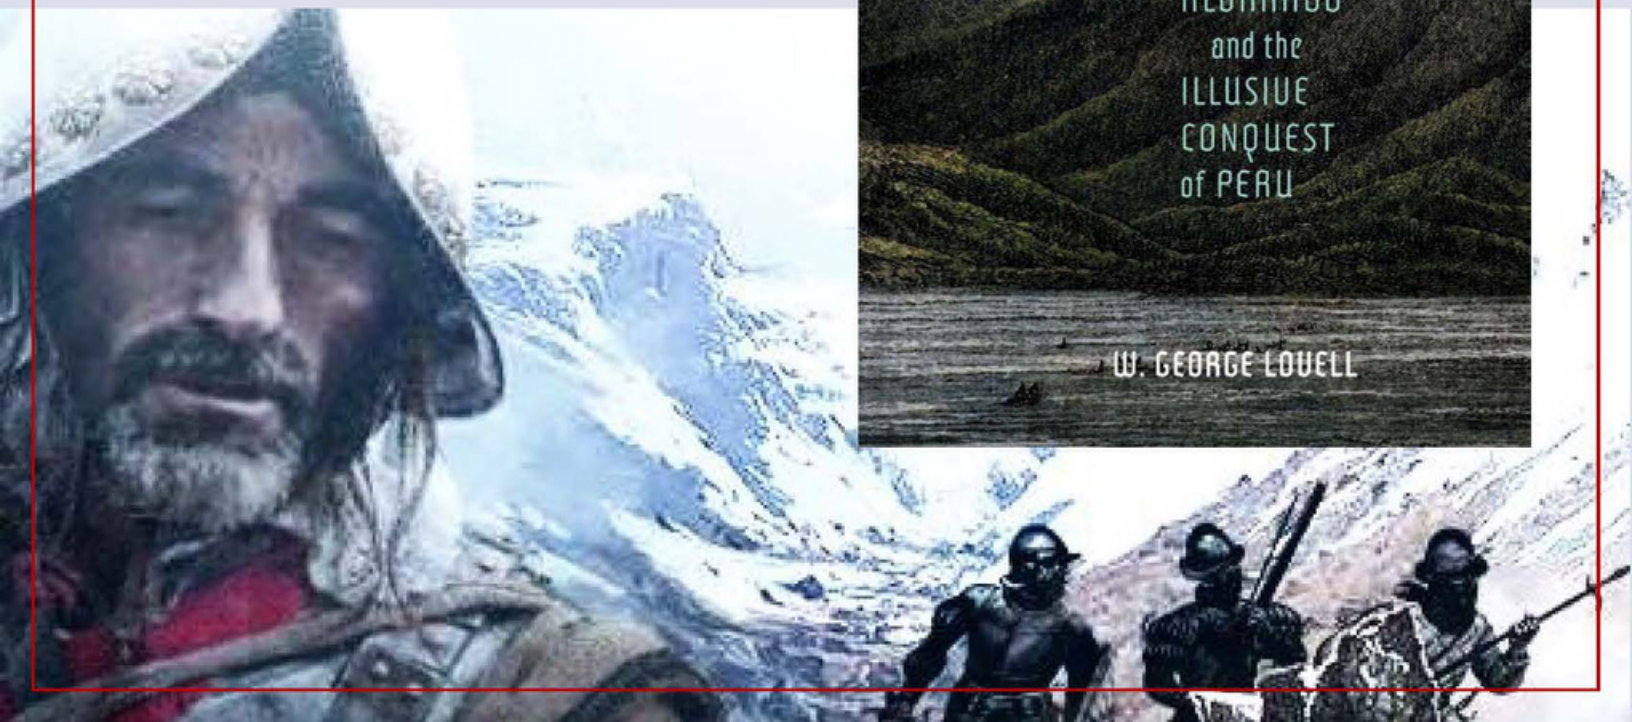

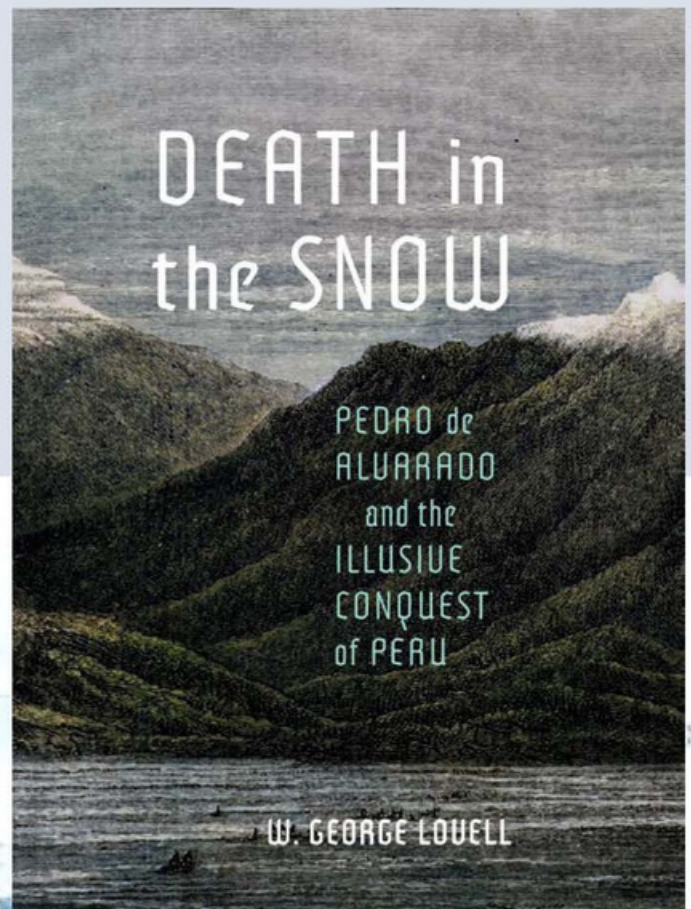

"George Lovell tells this lurid, little-known story with clarity and élan."

— John Hemming, author of The Conquest of the Incas

The author

W. George Lovell is Professor of Geography at Queen's University and Visiting Professor in Latin American history at Universidad Pablo de Olavide in Seville, Spain. Death in the Snow is his 17th book title.

Also available in Spanish as Muerte en la Nieve: Pedro de Alvarado y la Conquista de los Andes

Faculty Funding Opportunities

Opportunities for multiple disciplines:

- The Academy of Medical Sciences: Networking Grants - Deadline: Nov. 9, 2023
- France Canada Research Fund: New Collaborations Programs - Deadline: Nov. 17, 2023
- Mitacs: Globalink Research Award Thematic Call - Deadline: Nov. 17, 2023
- Mitacs-JSPS Summer Program 2024 – Call for Applications - Deadline: Nov. 30, 2023
- Chan Zuckerberg Initiative: Single Cell Biology, Cycle 3 - Deadline: Dec. 05, 2023
- Matariki (MNU) Research Seed Fund 2024/2025 - Deadline Dec. 8, 2023
- Natural Resources Canada: Climate-Resilient Coastal Communities Program - Deadline: Dec. 13, 2023
- Call for Submissions: Bruce Mitchell Research Program. - Deadline: Dec. 15, 2023

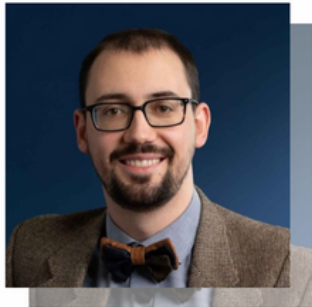

External opportunities:

- Falling Walls: The Female Science Talents Intensive Track - Deadline: Nov. 20, 2023
- ELAP Faculty Mobility for Partnership Building Program (FMPBP) 2024-25 - Deadline: Nov. 22, 2023
- NRC Luise and Gerhard Herzberg Postdoctoral Fellowship - National Research Council Canada - Deadline: Dec. 1, 2023
- Alberta Land Institute, University of Alberta: 2023-24 Call for Proposals - Deadline: Dec. 1, 2023

Queen's Geography and Planning Presents

Dr. Nick Revington

“The financialization of student housing through the COVID-19 pandemic and beyond”

Thursday, November 16, 2023
02:30 to 03:20 pm
Mackintosh-Corry Hall, Rm. E230

