GPHY 318: Advanced Biogeography
This position is to fill an existing vacancy within the University
Department of Geography and Planning
Queen's University, Kingston, ON CAN K7L 3N6

The Department of Geography and Planning at Queen's University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching a course in GPHY 318: Advanced Biogeography. This is an in-person teaching, third year course with an expected enrolment of 60 students. Candidates should have a M.Sc. or Ph.D, and teaching experience at the university level in geography. This is a winter term appointment for the period January 1, 2027, to April 30, 2027, with classes in session from January 4, 2027, to April 5, 2027. The course will be held on Tuesdays from 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM and Fridays from 1:00 PM to 2:30 PM.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority. Please indicate in your application if you have a valid legal work status in Canada. Applications from all qualified candidates will be considered in the applicant pool. In order to support your employment at Queen's, we require you to indicate whether or not you will need a work permit.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Barbra Lalonde via email bb13@queensu.ca or by telephone 613-533-3433.

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at 2022-26 -Queen's University-QUFA Collective Agreement.

The stipend for this position will be between $9,500 and $13,500. Actual salary will be commensurate with years of teaching experience and course weight, as per the Queen's-QUFA Collective Agreement.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, letters of reference from two (2) referees, and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a letter of intent, teaching dossier, etc. Please arrange to have applications and supporting letters sent to the attention of:
