The Department of Geography and Planning at Queen’s University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching a course in Gender and the City (GPHY 352/3.0). This is an on-campus, upper-year lecture course with an expected enrolment of 80 students. Candidates should have a M.A. or M.Sc. or Ph.D. in Geography or a related discipline. Teaching experience at the University level in Human Geography would be an asset. This is a winter term appointment for the period January 1, 2019 to April 30, 2019, with classes in session from January 7, 2019 to April 5, 2019.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen’s is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Joan Knox (joan.knox@queensu.ca); 613-533-2903.

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at http://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/queens-qufa-collective-agreement.

Teaching Fellows at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement for Teaching Assistants and Teaching Fellows between PSAC Local 901 and Queen's University. Remuneration will be in accordance with the Collective Agreement, and appointments are subject to funding or enrolment criteria. http://queensu.ca/facultyrelations/teaching-assistants-and-fellows/collective-agreement.

Post-Doctoral Fellows at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement for Teaching Assistants and Teaching Fellows between PSAC Local 90 and Queen's University. Remuneration will be in accordance with the Collective Agreement, and appointments are subject to funding or enrolment criteria. http://queensu.ca/facultyrelations/post-doctoral-fellows.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, letters of reference from two (2) referees, and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a letter of intent, teaching dossier, etc. Please arrange to have applications and supporting documentation sent to: Dr. Warren Mabee, Head; Department of Geography and Planning; Queen’s University; Kingston, Ontario; Canada K7L 3N6; c/o joan.knox@queensu.ca

Applications will be received until Thursday, November 15, 2018. Review of applications will commence shortly thereafter, and the final appointment is subject to budgetary approval. Additional information about the Department of Geography and Planning can be found at http://www.queensu.ca/geographyandplanning.
