DEPARTMENTAL EVENTS:

Wednesday, November 13; 10:00 a.m.; Grant Hall: Convocation.

Wednesday, November 13; 2:30 p.m.; MC E229: Departmental Meeting.

Thursday, November 14; 3:00 p.m.; MC D326: Graduate Student Council (GSC) Meeting.

OTHER EVENTS:

Monday, November 11; 10:50 a.m.; Grant Hall: The Queen’s community will gather in Grant Hall to mark Remembrance Day. The service will start at 10:50 a.m. with doors opening at 10:30 a.m. Classes are cancelled between 10:30 and 11:30 a.m. See more information further in the newsletter.

Monday, November 11; 4:00 p.m.; University Club (downstairs): History Seminar. Dr. Joanna Innes (Somerville College, University of Oxford) will speak on Re-Imagining Democracy in Europe after the French Revolution: The Diversity of National Experience.

Wednesday, November 13; 9:00 a.m.-noon; Stauffer Library, 121: GIS Day 2019! Send an email to iribegonzalez.daniela@queensu.ca to submit a poster on your GIS related research/project and have it displayed at the event! https://library.queensu.ca/about-us/news-events/gis-day-2019.

Thursday, November 14; 11:00 a.m.; JEFF 128: Global Development Studies Talk. Viviane Weitzner (McGill University) will speak on Indigenous Resurgence in “a world backwards:” Of Relations, Mining and Raw Economy/Raw Law in the Context of Colombia’s Armed Conflict.

Thursday, November 14; 1:00 p.m.; MC D214: SNID. Dr. Beverley Mullings (GPPL) will present Financialization, Securitization and the “War” on Caribbean Remittances.

Thursday, November 14; 4:00 p.m.; Miller 105: MSGP/Religion/SKHS Discussion Panel on Muslim Femininities in Sports with Shireen Ahmed (writer, public speaker, award winning sports activist), Sarah Abood (Co-founder of Thawrih, an inclusive athletic apparel company that focuses on creating quality sports hijabs, turbans, and modest Activewear) and Amina Mohamed (personal trainer and life-long athlete; MPT at McGill).

Wednesday, November 20; 5:30 p.m.; Mitchell Hall Rose Innovation Hub: Panel Event (part of the Queen’s Reads Program): The Global Refugee Crisis and Our Community’s Role. See full details below.
Canadian Urbanism (CanU) summit in Hamilton.

At the same event, David was named a CanU Builder, the Council’s highest honour, for his role as a founding Director and Chair of CanU’s Research Committee.

CanU Board members recognize “builders” who’ve helped create and sustain the Council for Canadian Urbanism.

Join Queen’s Student Affairs Office for a discussion with a panel of Queen’s and Kingston community members about the Global Refugee Crisis and Our Community’s Role. The discussion will centre around:
* The scope of the refugee crisis and some of the reasons for forced migration
* What is (or isn’t) being done at the federal and local level to respond to the global refugee crisis
* How newcomers view the crisis and what agency they have (or don’t have) in influencing support initiatives
See Calendar above for more details.

FACULTY FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

- ACUNS: POLAR Scholarships
- Emissions Reduction Alberta: Natural Gas Challenge
- Mitacs Globalink Research Awards
- MTO: Road Safety Research Partnership Program
- NSERC/CIHR/SSHRC: College and Community Innovation Program - Innovation Links Grants
- CIHR Catalyst Grant: Impacts of financial and organizational restructuring of public health
- CIMVHR Funding Opportunity: Literature Review on "Military to Civilian Transition: The Importance of GBA+ for the Canadian Armed Forces"
- Crohn's and Colitis Canada Innovations in IBD Research
- Crohn's and Colitis Canada Grants-in-Aid of Research Competition
- Special Knowledge Synthesis Grant: Living Within the Earth's Carrying Capacity

HUMAN RIGHTS OFFICE: TRI-AWARDS NOMINATIONS

Nominations for this year’s Tri-awards are open. Each year the Human Rights and Equity Office honours individual and group accomplishments in the areas of employment equity, accessibility and human rights. If you know an individual, group or organization who you’d like to recognize, please click the “here” below to nominate. Who can Nominate? Any member of the Queen's community including students, staff, faculty, or alumni, as well as members of the general Kingston community and surrounding area who have an interest in Queen's University may submit nominations. Click HERE for more information and to nominate. Deadline: January 13, 2020.

REMEMBRANCE DAY OBSERVANCE

Monday, November 11: This year’s speaker is Major (Ret’d) Norma Jean Barrett, CD, JD, LLM. All faculty, staff, and students are invited to attend. The event is also open to the Kingston community. For those unable to attend, a livestream of the event will be available. To learn more about the Queen’s community’s contributions to the Canadian effort during First World War and Second World War, visit the Queen’s University Archives website. A permanent exhibit of remembrance is also on display in the Memorial Room of the John Deutsch University Centre (JDUC). See Calendar above for time.