As we move into the summer months (June/July/August), the weekly Newsletter will move to a bi-weekly publication schedule. Please send material you would like to see included in the Newsletter to my attention (knoxj@queensu.ca) by noon the Friday before. Thanks everyone and, please, have a healthy, safe and fun summer!

The next Newsletter will come out on Monday, June 21st.

David Gordon was interviewed about how the 2021 Canadian Census will aid future long-range planning for a feature story in Novae Res Urbis, the Toronto planning professional journal.

To launch and to help thank all those who helped with Laura Jean’s Friend Beloved: Marie Stopes, Gordon Hewitt, and an Ecology of Letters, the Redpath Museum in Montreal presented a conversation with the Museum's Ingrid Birker -- featuring dramatic readings of the letters by the actor, Andrew Cameron. If you missed it, you can still catch the livestream recording of the 2nd June event here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cONTsYDpCPI.

The Residential School Survivors Society (irsss.ca) provides support for anyone experiencing pain or distress as a result of their Residential school experience and runs a crisis line for residential school survivors. Since last week’s news, they have been receiving more calls from across the country and would benefit from donations.

If members of the department would like to donate to the IRSSS, they can do so at the following links:
