

Fall 2023 Teaching Opportunities – Teaching Fellows

The Department of Gender Studies invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching the following course:

GNDS 120-002 Women, Gender, Difference

This course explores women, gender, and difference from feminist and anti-racist perspectives. It identifies the ways in which women's activism, politics, and experiences intersect with other gendered identifications such as race, location, class, (dis)ability, and sexuality. Lessons and texts will introduce feminism, the body, colonialism, gender performance, and strategies of resistance.

This is a fall term appointment for the period September 1, 2023 to December 31, 2023 with classes in session from September 5, 2023 to December 5, 2023

This is a 1st year course with an expected enrolment of 200 students.
5 teaching assistants will be assigned, and they will each lead two tutorial sections.

GNDS 120-002 is delivered as a two hour in person lecture on Mondays from 2:30-4:30pm. Teaching Assistants lead tutorial sections on Tuesdays from 8:30-9:30am and 9:30-10:30am

As per the PSAC-Queen's collective agreement, preference will be given to qualified funding-eligible graduate students registered in the Department of Gender Studies doctoral program at Queen's and who have relevant teaching experience.

Applications should include the following:

- Cover letter detailing how your academic accomplishments and relevant experience make you a strong candidate for the course you are applying for;
- Curriculum vitae;
- An unofficial transcript of graduate coursework;
- The names and contact information of two referees (reference letters not needed);
- Proposed course outline or syllabus for the course you are applying for; and
- Any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration.

Applications should be submitted to <https://redcap.link/gndsfall2023> by the deadline noted above.

Questions about this opportunity may be forwarded to gnds.hiring@queensu.ca.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous/Aboriginal people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Denita Arthurs, Department Manager (613-533-6000 x75397, gnds.hiring@queensu.ca)

Teaching Fellows at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement for Teaching Assistants and Teaching Fellows between PSAC Local 901 and Queen's University.

As per PSAC 901 Unit 1 Collective Agreement, Gender Studies Graduate Students in Preference Group A will be given priority.

Remuneration will be in accordance with the collective agreement, and appointments are subject to funding or enrollment criteria.
