

TEACHING POSITION AVAILABLE – 18/19
GNDS 401/6.0 – Debates on Feminism and Islam
Department of Gender Studies
Queen's University, Kingston, ON CAN K7L 3N6

The Department of Gender Studies at Queen's University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching a course in Debates on Feminism and Islam (GNDS 401/6.0). This is an on-campus, fourth year seminar course with an expected enrolment of ~25 students. Candidates should have a Ph.D and experience relevant to teaching Gender Studies through an intersectional lens at the university level. This is a fall term appointment for the period September 1, 2018 to December 31, 2018, with classes in session from September 6 to November 30, 2018.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Kathy Baer, Undergraduate Assistant, 613-533-6318 kathy.baer@queensu.ca.

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at <http://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/queens-qufa-collective-agreement>.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship, however, all applications must include one of the following statements: "I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada"; OR, "I am not a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada". Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, letters of reference from two (2) referees, and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a letter of intent, teaching dossier, etc. Applicants are encouraged to send all documents in their application package electronically (either as PDFs or MS Word files) to kathy.baer@queensu.ca
