Ontario Universities Taking Action Against Sexual Violence

Conference
August 10-11, 2016
Queen’s University
Kingston, Ontario

Bringing together university change-makers from across Ontario to share best practices, generate ideas, and build networks to prevent sexual violence on our campuses. Student advocates, researchers, university administrators, campus service providers, community organizations, and policy-makers are all encouraged to attend.

Featuring opening remarks from:

Hon. Patty Hajdu
Member of Parliament,
Thunder Bay-Superior North
Minister of Status of Women and keynote presentations by:

Dr. Chris Linder
Asst. Professor, University of Georgia
Engaging Power-Conscious and Intersectional Strategies to Prevent Sexual Violence

Dr. Charlene Senn
Professor, University of Windsor
Why We Need Comprehensive Evidence-Based Prevention on our Campuses

Join us for a plenary dialogue, Imagining Connections and Building Relationships to End Sexual Violence, with:

Samina Sami
Executive Director of Community Safety,
York University

Yami Msosa
Public Education Coordinator,
Sexual Assault Support Centre of Ottawa

Hayley Moody
Sexual Violence Counsellor and Advocate,
Sexual Assault Centre of Brant

Julie Lalonde
Feminist activist and women’s advocate
Project Manager, Draw-the-Line.ca

Register online at bit.ly/OUTA2016

This conference is made possible thanks to the generous support of:

- Dean of Student Affairs
- Department of English
- Department of Film Studies
- Department of French
- Department of Gender Studies
- Department of Global Development Studies
- Department of Kinesiology and Health Studies
- Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures
- Department of Physics
- Department of Sociology
- Division of Student Affairs
- Faculty of Education
- Human Rights Office
- Office of the Principal and Vice-Chancellor
- School of Computing (Women in Computing)
- School of Environmental Studies
- School of Nursing
- School of Religion
- Smith School of Business
- Vice-Principal (Research)
- PSAC 901
- Get Real Queen’s