

Scholarships/Prizes/Awards

Undergraduate Awards for Graduating Students:

Medal in Gender Studies – no monetary value. This medal is awarded at Convocation by the Chancellor to the graduating Gender Studies student with the highest academic standing.

The Deans of Women Memorial Scholarship – monetary award given to the graduating Gender Studies student with the second highest academic standing.

Graduate Student Awards (decisions made by GNDS Graduate Coordinator):

Sue Hendler Graduate Scholarship in Gender Studies -This award was established in July 2011 with a gift to the University from Mr. Mortimer Hendler, father of Sue Hendler. Sue, who died in 2009 after a brave battle with cancer, was Associate Professor in the School of Urban and Regional Planning and served as Head of the Department of Women's Studies for two terms. This award is granted to a full-time graduate student, based on academic excellence.

Poole Family Award in Women's and Gender Studies -This award has been established by Alice Poole (Arts, 1942) and the candidate is selected on the basis of "academic excellence by a Master's Student in Gender Studies who has a research interest in studies related to increasing understanding of and action on improvement of the status of women".

Awards decided by the Awards Office:

Betsy (Sparrow) Clarke Bursary- established by Betsy (Sparrow) Clarke, Arts '63, and awarded on the basis of financial need to a full-time student in the Faculty of Arts and Science. Preference will be given to a female student enrolled in at least one course in Gender Studies or English.

Department of Gender Studies Bursary – Established in May 2001 from donations and awarded to a student in the Department of Gender Studies on the basis of financial need, with preference to a woman student enrolled in a Gender Studies degree program who has completed GNDS 311.

General Bursary link for Frequently Asked Questions:

<http://www.queensu.ca/studentawards/general-bursary>

From Queen's Positive Space Program:

To support LGBTQ students across Canada, Start Proud offers a series of scholarships, awarded each academic year. For more information on the awards, link to Scholarship: <https://www.startproud.org/awards/#tab-general>

From Ban Righ Centre:

Emergency Bursary Assistance

Needs-based assistance available to registered mature women students throughout the academic year.

The Bonnie Judge Memorial Bursaries

These bursaries were established to provide financial support to women students enrolled in any undergraduate program at Queens University, who have been away from formal study for 3 or more years, and who have no previous University degree.

QWA Endowed Bursaries and Awards:

The Association annually contributes to bursaries and awards.

Elizabeth Wallace Award - This award is offered through the Ban Righ Foundation and is named after the original Faculty Women's Club founding president, wife of former Principal R.C. Wallace, and awarded on the basis of financial need to student(s) in their first year of study at the University.

Pauline Schubert Bursary - This bursary given is awarded in memory of the late Pauline Schubert, a former President of the Faculty Women's Club, to assist a female student.

<http://www.queensu.ca/gwa/about/bursaries-and-awards>

March 10, 2016